

A Garden Compass

1. Name things worth kneeling to, waiting for or submitting to a battle with.
2. What makes them worth it?
Proverbs 22:1
Isaiah 62:12
Psalms 138:8
3. What could be taken away from you to amend your soil? What needs added?
1Samuel 2:8a,c
Psalms 60:2
Hosea 6:1

Gifts of God's people:

4. What part of your life is stagnant?
Have you ever been the woman at the well? Struggling to breath?
How valuable was water and the air?
5. Why is it a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of living God...
Hebrews 10:31
Lamentations 3:22-23
6. What's more dreadful about the world falling into our hands?
(now that we are gardeners)
Jeremiah 12:13a
Ecclesiastes 2:10b-11
7. How do we best balance human relationships and a relationship with God?
How can you tell when there is balance?
Psalms 1:3.. Then look at Psalms 1-2
8. When you've been hurt how have you compensated?
SOS 3:2
Jeremiah 12:11b

9. What do people normally do when they misbehave? Why?
Romans 1:19-20

10. If you were going to write a book, what would it be about? Tell me why?
Matthew 7:20
Deuteronomy 4:9

11. What have you been ignoring, piled up. IGNORED?

12. Do you have a compost pile?

13. Or do you carry your garbage around?

14. What feels incomplete and empty in your life?
Habakkuk 2:13-14

15. Has the observation, training, cultivation or restraint of some part of the world given your life purpose?
Matthew 13:44
1 Peter 4:10-11

16. Is there anything you celebrate, treasure, harvest or protect that helps with the emptiness? What replaces it with meaning and purpose?
Matthew 6:33
Psalms 63:1-7

1 Corinthians 12 Discover your gifts.

1 Corinthians 15: 37-43

What you sow may not grow into what you expect. Trust that what God will grow in your garden will be more fruitful and beautiful than you dare to ask, or imagine according to His riches and glory.

