

Colossians Online Bible Study Part 7

High and Holy Family Callings: Colossians 3:18-4:1

Questions for Discussion/Personal Reflection:

- For Wives: What holds you back from willingly submitting to your husband? How can remembering that Jesus willingly submits to the Father help you fulfill your high and holy calling to submit to your husband?
- For Singles: What authority are you being called to submit to? What holds you back from willingly submitting to that authority? How can remembering Jesus's willing submission help you as you submit to the authorities God has placed in your life?
- For Parents: What motivates you to require obedience from your children? How can you encourage your children to rise to the high and holy calling God has given them to obey you in everything?
- For Spiritual Parents: Who have you been called to spiritually parent? How can you encourage that person to rise to the high and holy calling that God has given them to obey His authority in their lives?
- For the Worker: Do you currently work with excellence? How can remembering that you serve the Lord through your work help you work with excellence?
- For the Overseer: How can remembering that you are answerable to your Master in heaven help you treat those who work under you fairly?
